Palace of Versailles, Louvre Museum and Sacre Coeur with Funicular Ride

In the morning first we shall visit the Palace of Versailles. One of the most famous historic monuments in the world, the Palace of Versailles was the official residence of the Kings of France Louis XIV, Louis XV and Louis XVI and their courts from 1682 to 1789. Its Baroque architecture, sumptuous decoration, works of art, and furniture were all created by the greatest artisans of the age. After touring the palace, explore the magic of its formal gardens and exceptionally beautiful grounds. Post lunch we will go to the Louvre Museum. Inside this former Royal Palace, you will wander through the rooms for almost 2h30 thanks to the interactive map offering several itineraries. You will experience a real journey through time in this itinerary that will take you from Ancient Greece to the French Renaissance. You will admire French and Italian paintings, such as the fabulous Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci or the Wedding at Cana by Paul Veronese. The most fabulous sculptures, such as the Venus de Milo or the Victory of Samothrace, will hold no secrets for you. Post Louvre we shall go to the Montmartre area where we will stop at the Basilica of Sacre Coeur on top of the hill that gives splendid views of Paris. You will have time to click pics and then come down via the funicular. We will drive to the restaurant for dinner before returning to our hotel. Overnight in Paris. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)
