Crossing - Japanese Tea Ceremony - Shopping at Akihabara

After breakfast our journey continues to Ueno Park, a well-known public space housing numerous museum. However, it is most famous as a cherry blossom viewing spot. During peak bloom, the park is filled with employees, friends, and families picnicking under the trees, enjoying the spectacular sight of the ground blanketed in white and pink petals. We will then head to Shinjuku Gyoen National Garden, renowned for its large variety of cherry trees. From late March to early April, over 400 Somei Yoshino trees bloom, transforming the English garden lawns into one of Tokyo's most delightful hanami spots. Meiji Shrine: Visit the Meiji Shrine, a tranquil Shinto shrine dedicated to the deified spirits of Emperor Meiji and Empress Shoken. Nestled in a lush forest, this shrine is a serene escape from the bustling city and offers a glimpse into Japan's spiritual traditions. Shibuya Crossing & Hachiko Statue (Photo Stop): Experience the world-famous Shibuya Crossing, known for its immense pedestrian scramble. Nearby, take a photo with the statue of Hachiko, the loyal dog who waited for his owner every day at Shibuya Station, a symbol of loyalty and fidelity. Japanese Tea Ceremony: Participate in a traditional Japanese tea ceremony, where you will learn the art and etiquette of preparing and drinking matcha tea, an integral part of Japanese culture. Indian Lunch at a Local Restaurant: Enjoy a delicious lunch featuring Indian cuisine. Shopping at Akihabara: Spend your afternoon exploring Akihabara, Tokyo's famous electronics district. Known as a paradise for tech enthusiasts and anime fans, Akihabara offers a wide array of shops selling gadgets, electronics, anime merchandise, and more. Take your time to browse and shop to your heart's content. Dinner at a Local Indian Restaurant: End your day with a delightful dinner at an Indian restaurant. After Dinner, transfer back to your hotel. (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner)
